"Just for Fun"
By RAS BERRY

W. Post and Mac McMillan and me was playing golf Sat. and W. Post was lighting a fog and a piece of the match flew off of the match and lodged in his eye and we couldn't see nothing in his eye and says we guessed he just burned it a little and he played the rest of the round with a wadded handkerchief over his optic and he played better that way than he had done before and Mac says the only way we can beat this bird is to put out his other eye and after the match was over W. Post he went to see his brother-in-law doctor Jess Lancaster who don't charge relatives nothing for medical work only he ain't got many relatives and the dr. finds a piece of match in his eye and now W. Post says Mac and I seen it when we looked in his eye only we wouldn't tell him so as we could beat him playing golf.

Mac says the way you played with that piece in your eye why you should ought to never go out on a golf course without a handful of cinders in your pocket.

Mayor Dennis is back from a trip up to his old home in Oregon and I guess he thought Torrance was growing pretty fast during his absence because while he was up there the paper in his old home town come down here and it said in it that John Dennis was visiting from Torrance, a city of 12,000 in Southern California.

John says he didn't lie that much but only told the reporter that he guessed Torrance was about 8000 population and the reporter done the rest of the lying. I guess a man on his vacation is entitled to lie 4000, eh John?

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party.

I offer to you as a suggestion for the G. O. P. watchword in Pennsylvania.

They didn't buy no votes in Pennsylvania—but each one had to spend $3,000,000 to keep the other follow from buying them.

In Pittsburg the slogan is to vote early—and often.

Robert Stevens of Philadelphia was a guest recently of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beaver. Mr. Stevens, who is general passenger agent of the P. R. R., and a former classmate of Mr. Beaver, plans to locate in Southern California.

Mrs. Laura Gordon and daughter, who left Saturday for a visit with friends in Lawrence, Kan., are driving through with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dodson.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Phillips and Mrs. Mary Ann Phillips attended the Cabrillo Theatre in San Pedro Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Linden Chandler and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chandler are on a month's motor trip through Oregon and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Frederickson of Westgate entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Chase at dinner Sunday, after which all attended Angelus Temple.

Dennis Returns Sure Torrance Is Great City

Mayor Says Comparisons Show This Community One of Best

Mayor John Dennis, who returned this week from a visit to Hillsboro, Ore., his former home town, said that he paid particular attention to cities in the northwest and found none that can compare with Torrance in point of future prospects.

"The more small cities one sees," said Mr. Dennis, "the stronger one is sold on Torrance. Growth here will follow lines laid out in advance. Other cities are growing like Topsy, without rhyme or reason. My advice to all who doubt the advantages of Torrance is to take a trip around the country and inspect other cities."

Weekend guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Gridley of Oak street were Mr. and Mrs. B. M. McDougall and family, of Glendora.

Mrs. Tim Terrell and daughter, Mrs. Frank Baker, of Weston street, were visitors Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Woods of Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Willacy will leave Monday on a three-weeks motor trip through the northern states. Their son James will stay with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, during his parents' absence.

Mr. Albert of Weston street has returned from the Torrance hospital and is recovering rapidly.
